GENERAL INFORMATION

Membership is by invitation only. To be invited and admitted to membership, it is preferred that an individual be a current or former member in good standing of a USGA Type 1 golf club, which has a membership policy which screens its members for good character, sportsmanship and reputation in the community, and does not merely accept them based on the payment of a membership fee, etc. Although not required, it is preferred that members be full or part-time residents of the State of Connecticut or its immediate vicinity in bordering states. Invitations to membership are at the sole discretion of the Membership Committee.

ARTICLE VII - Proposal/Application for Membership

Section 1. A Proposal/Application for membership shall be completed using the Association Membership Proposal/Application Form and be submitted to the Assistant Secretary Membership. All Membership Proposal/Applications are subject to approval of the Membership Committee.

Individuals for whom a Membership Proposal/Application, accompanied by an endorsement letter from a current member who testifies to personal knowledge of the individual's good character, sportsmanship, compatibility, and reputation in the community, has been received in good order may be approved, and an invitation to membership issued.
