To be invited and admitted to membership, it is preferred that an individual be a current or former member in good standing of a USGA Type 1 golf club, which has a membership policy which screens its members for good character, sportsmanship and reputation in the community, and does not merely accept them based on the payment of a membership fee, etc. Although not required, it is preferred that members be full or part-time residents of the State of Connecticut or its immediate vicinity in bordering states. Invitations to membership are at the sole discretion of the Membership Committee.
