GENERAL INFORMATION

Membership is by invitation only. To be invited and admitted to membership, it is preferred that an individual be a current or former member in good standing of a USGA Type 1 golf club, which has a membership policy which screens its members for good character, sportsmanship and reputation in the community, and does not merely accept them based on the payment of a membership fee, etc. Although not required, it is preferred that members be full or part-time residents of the State of Connecticut or its immediate vicinity in bordering states. Invitations to membership are at the sole discretion of the Membership Committee.

PERTINENT BYLAW

ARTICLE VII - Proposal/Application for Membership

Section 1. A Proposal/Application for membership shall be completed using the Association Membership Proposal/Application Form and be submitted to the Assistant Secretary Membership. All Membership Proposal/Applications are subject to approval of the Membership Committee.

Initially, it is incumbent on the proposing Member to evaluate the Candidate against established CSSGA standards. Membership Proposals/Applications shall be accompanied by the Proposer's Letter of Recommendation, describing from first-hand, personal knowledge of the Candidate's good character, sportsmanship, compatibility, and reputation in the community, as well as, anticipated level of participation in events. When received in good order, the Proposal/Application may be approved and an invitation to membership extended.
